HOUSE PROPOSAL TO HIKE SOCIAL SECURITY GETS ADMINISTRATION OKAY

WASHINGTON (AP)—The administration today approved the House-passed proposal to increase Social Security benefits. Objections were raised, however, to sections of the bill which would increase the federal share of public assistance funds.

Secretary of Welfare Arthur S. Flemming presented the administration's position to the Senate Finance Committee in his first testimony at the Capitol since he joined the Cabinet last Friday.

Romance Winner Over Fraud in Cincinnati Court

CINCINNATI, Ohio (AP)—Romance has won out over charges of fraud.

Three weeks ago Emma C. Bailey, 49-year-old Salisbury, Md., widow, complained to federal officers here that Thomas Cecil Priddy, 42, had defrauded her of more than $5,000 to bet on horses.

FBI agents arrested Priddy at his downtown hotel and charged him with violation of the federal law against interstate transportation of stolen property. Then Mrs. Bailey filed suit to recover $50,000 which she alleged she had given Priddy since they first met in Miami, Fla., in 1955.

Thursday, Mrs. Bailey and Priddy showed up in a nearby Newport, Ky., Justice of the Peace Court where they were married. "I'm quite happy," said the new Mrs. Priddy. "The whole thing was a mistake and a misunderstanding. We're sorry it happened."

She then filed for dismissal of the $50,000 recovery suit. The federal charge is still pending, but attorneys said it probably would have to be dropped when Priddy appears for a hearing next Tuesday because a wife can't be required to testify against her husband.

In her original complaint, Mrs. Bailey said Priddy brought her here and obtained the $5,000, saying he would bet it on supposedly fixed horse races. She said she never received any money in return.

$300,000,000 for Flood Control Jobs in Penn'a

HARRISBURG (AP)—Pennsylvania today has approval for some 300 million dollars worth of flood control projects but less than 100 million dollars in federal funds has been made available.

WASHINGTON (AP)—The administration today approved the House-passed proposal to increase Social Security benefits. Objections were raised, however, to sections of the bill which would increase the federal share of public assistance funds.

Secretary of Welfare Arthur S. Flemming presented the administration's position to the Senate Finance Committee in his first testimony at the Capitol since he joined the Cabinet last Friday.

Flemming said that on the whole he believes the major changes the House approved in the Old Age and Survivor Insurance program "are reasonable and desirable and I recommend their adoption."

Among the major changes: 1. An increase of OASI insurance benefits by 7 per cent, with a minimum increase of $3.

2. Broadening of the taxable wage base from $4,200 to $4,800 and an increase in the tax rate effective Jan. 1, as well as a substantial speedup of the future tax increases already scheduled by law.

The bill, passed by the House 375-2, may hold the key to when Congress adjourns. The Senate committee plans two days of hearings.

In addition, the bill would increase by 288 million dollars a year the federal grants to the states for such programs as aid to the needy aged.

Chairman Harry F. Byrd (D-Va.), who has been unenthusiastic about handling so comprehensive a bill in the adjournment crunch, nevertheless told a reporter he thought his committee might send the bill to the floor by the middle of next week.

Many legislators still are hoping the 1958 session can end by Saturday, Aug. 16. The speedup may operate to prevent much Senate change in the House version.

For the 12 million persons now on the insurance rolls, the bill would increase payments from a range of $30 to $108.50 a month to $38 to $118.

The payroll tax would be increased next year by one quarter per cent each on employee and employer to a rate of 2 1/2 per cent. The wage base on which the tax is paid would be raised from $4,200 to $4,800. The bill also would advance the

Violent Electrical Storms Sweep Area Leaving Over Two Inches of Rain in Boro

Most violent electrical storms of the year crackled across the area Thursday afternoon, leaving behind 2.3 inches of rain, two lightning-struck houses, downed power lines and tree limbs.

First storm arrived about 4:30 p. m. and brought a lightning bolt through the roof of Fred Streich's home at 7 South Marion street. Firemen said a hole about two feet square was carved in the roof but no blaze started. The crew made temporary repairs with plastic covering and lathe. Damage was estimated at $500.

Second lightning bolt struck a borough home came during the second storm about 7:45 p. m. at the George Spangler residence, 104 Division street. Mrs. Spangler said she was reading the children for bed when a bolt came "through the chimney" and started a fire in a kitchen waste basket.

Mrs. Spangler rushed Debbie, aged 6, and Jimmy, 3, to her father's home across the street, then went back after 10-week-old puppy, Skipper, a present to Debbie who had observed her birthday Thursday. Assisted by her father, Mrs. Spangler doused the kitchen basket, putting out flames before firemen arrived. She had left the dishpan full to put the offspring to bed.

The plastic wastebasket melted and linoleum burned under the basket. Firemen estimated damage at about $600. Mr. Spangler, a Penelec employee, was out on a storm damage call. Penelec general foreman Lyle

RAIN MAY HAVE SET A RECORD

Experienced weather observers call Thursday's first downpour one of the heaviest in memory. Almost an inch and one-half of rain fell in 40 minutes. Those who were unlucky enough to be caught in it described it as a "cloud-burst."

Schafer reported power "outages" at Miller Hill, Cable Hollow in Akeley and in Pleasant Township. Crews rapidly repaired the damages from the first storm but were called back to Pleasant when the second storm cut off power again.

Street lights went out in the Coneywango avenue section during the second downpour. They were also out for several hours on the south side. Lights blinked off for a few seconds in Warren, Sheffield and Clarendon when lightning took out a feeder line about 4:40 p. m.

Borough police reported several large limbs were downed and storm sewer manhole covers dislodged on Madison and South Carver. Flooding occurred along Coneywango Avenue but no large amount of damage was reported.

Weather observer "Uncle Jim" Reier reported 1.48 inches of rain fell during the first wind-swept deluge, nearly another inch through the late evening and night.

Senator Gore Is Renominated by Tennessee Dems

By BARNEY BALLARD NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP)—Tennessee Democrats renominated Sen. Albert Gore in Thursday's primary, while Buford Ellington held an uneasy lead in the governor's race against three opponents.

Memphis Mayor Edmund Orgill and Jackson Circuit Judge Andrew T. Taylor perched within striking distance as tabulators awaited trickling returns from the state's final 250 precincts. State Sen. Clifford Allen of Nashville tallied far behind.

Death Seals Story About Human Torch

PONTIAC, Mich. (AP)—A secret witness, a scorched flashlight and a mysterious black Cadillac added up today to what investigators believed was a case of arson that backfired in the fatal "human torch" burning of an ex-convict Teamsters Union official.

Three days after he stumbled into St. Joseph Mercy Hospital in Pontiac with over 85 per cent of his body horribly burned, Frank Kierdorf, 56, a business agent for Teamsters Local 332, died Thursday shortly after becoming a convert to Catholicism.

To the end, Kierdorf had insisted that he was set afire by two men who lured him from his home Sunday night, doused him with an inflammable fluid and ignited it.

However, Michigan Atty. Gen. Paul L. Adams told newsmen he was convinced Kierdorf was caught in a blazing trap while trying to set a Flint dry cleaning shop afire.

A secret witness has told police he stopped his car when he saw the fire, watched two men running from the building and then heard a third man screaming inside, Adams said.

"We are left with the possibilities that this was an organized attempt as part of Kierdorf's union activity or that he did it on his own," he said. Adams said the evidence now gave "every indication that a charge of arson can be laid," and added that there were indications of other charges. He did not explain what the other charges might be.

The black Cadillac turned up in a used car lot and was described by Adams as possibly the getaway car from the Flint fire. The expensive sedan was owned by a Teamster local, but had been turned over to Kierdorf's missing uncle, Herman Kierdorf, 68, who disappeared Monday after visiting Frank in the hospital.

Herman, wanted by police for questioning and on a charge of having a gun silencer in his possession, sold the Cadillac to a used car dealer for $1,700 and then vanished, Adams said. He added that there was some promising clues to link the car with the one at the fire scene.

Investigators found a scorched flashlight in the remains of the dry cleaning establishment and that bit of evidence completed a picture of what they said was the probable explanation for Frank Kierdorf's fatal burns.

After setting a device to explode into flames at the La-treille cleaners Sunday night, they said, Kierdorf dropped his

Bomarc Missile Fails in Flight After Launching

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP)—Air Force specialists continued to check instrumentation reports today to learn what caused a Bomarc interceptor missile to fail in flight after it was launched successfully by remote control from 1,500 miles away.

The missile blazed across the Atlantic Thursday after it was triggered by personnel manning a huge electronic computer in Kingston, N.Y.

Dollar Day Shoppers Find Many Genuine Bargains

Dollar Days in Warren opened this morning with fine crowds of area shoppers visiting the stores taking part in the two-day community wide sales promotion. The shoppers are finding unexcelled season prices as the 70 cooperating merchants have gone "all out" in an effort to give their customers genuine savings during the weekend.

Merchants reported this morning, also, that shoppers are registering for the grand prize "car full of groceries" which is worth $500 to the winner. The winner gets the 1952 Pontiac, the groceries inside and 50 gallons of gasoline to keep it running for some time to come.

It is stressed that there is nothing to buy to be eligible—merely write your name and address on a registration slip and deposit in the boxes provided in each retail place taking part. The slips will be collected Monday for a drawing to determine the winner of the first prize and ten other awards.

TO DISCUSS FUTURE OF MIDDLE EAST

By WILLIAM N. OATES UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—The U. N. General Assembly begins an emergency special session on the Middle East late today but won't get down to real business until next Tuesday or Wednesday.

Before adjournment, the Soviet Union was expected to make its usual fruitless move to seat Communist China in place of the Chinese Nationalist delegate.

The special Assembly session was called by unanimous vote of the Security Council Thursday night on a compromise resolution. The resolution got both the U. S. and Soviet votes by avoiding specific mention of (1) the original U. S. charge of indirect aggression by the United Arab Republic in Lebanon and (2) the Soviet demand for immediate withdrawal of U. S. forces from Lebanon and British forces from Jordan.

But Soviet Delegate Arkady A. Sobolev, after dropping his resolution, said the main purpose of the emergency session still should be to devise measures for the troop withdrawals.

U. S. Delegate Henry Cabot Lodge told the Council the special session should deal with broad and fundamental problems of the troubled area, going beyond stop-gap measures to stabilize the immediate situation. Informed sources said the U. S. delegation was working hard on a far-reaching political-economic program for the Middle East which it plans to submit.

Adlai Disturbed Over Widespread Misunderstanding

MOSCOW (AP)—Adlai Stevenson said today he was disturbed by the widespread misunderstanding and ignorance about the United States that he had encountered during his three-week tour of the Soviet Union.

In a parting statement before leaving for Warsaw, the Democratic party leader called for a much wider and freer exchange of ideas and information.

"We must not only learn more from each other but more about each other," Stevenson said. Stevenson said his talk with Premier Khrushchev Tuesday had "served to measure the gulf which unhappily divides our countries."

He said he and the Soviet leader had agreed that the goals and interests "that unite us must prevail."

Bedford Co. Court Places Strict Ban on Photography

BEDFORD, Pa. (AP)—A recently imposed ban against courtroom photography in Bedford applies to an area that is about 1,300 feet long.

Judge Richard C. Snyder's order prohibits taking photos of prisoners in the county jail or on their way to or from a session of court. The jail is located one block or about 650 feet from the courthouse.

Hershey Estate Being Readied For Plowing Day

The land pattern is changing on the Hershey Estate Farms in Pennsylvania—site of the National Plowing Contest and Conservation Exposition August 21 and 22.

Engineers and bulldozers, workers and tractors are readying a 2,300-acre demonstration area on the 12,000-acre dairy and general farming layout. More than 30 conservation techniques will be exhibited during the two-day event according to Ralph Hunter, of the Soil Conservation Service, conservation exposition division chairman.

Earth builders have made a 1 1/2-acre pond now filled with water where fishermen will get first-hand tips on catching bass and bluegills. Giant diversion terraces and grassed waterways are now on the land. They are used to prevent heavy rain from washing away soil. Pennsylvania farmers have installed more than 2,000 miles of these—enough to stretch around the state several times.

Of special interest to sportsmen and nature lovers are areas prepared for wildlife food and cover. Tree planting and woodland management projects are being readied for the two-day event.

RADIO and TV

By CHARLES MERCER

NEW YORK (AP)—You never can tell where talent will be found—or who will be its discoverer. For example:

One evening almost three years ago a high school boy named Lawrence Welk Jr. dropped in for a date with a classmate named Diane Lennon at her home in Venice, Calif. He found Diane and her younger sisters, Peggy, Kathy and Janet, singing while they washed the dishes.

They were good enough for television, he later told his father, a gentleman who is somewhat familiar with both music and television. The senior Welk ducked the audition pleadings of his son for a long time until one Sunday when he was laid up with a cold. Trapped, he listened to the Lennon sisters. Two weeks later they appeared on the Lawrence Welk Show (ABC-TV, Saturday).

Today, as regulars on the Welk Show, they receive about a million or something fan letters a week. Today, when they visit New York, you can't join them for a quiet tomato juice in a restaurant without droves of maternal women engulfing the table for autographs.

Yet an astonishing thing about the Lennon sisters is that they don't want a lifetime career as professional singers—with a single reservation.

Asked about that future during their first trip to New York, Diane, 18, Peggy, 17, Kathy, 14, and Janet, 12, said they had no desire to continue indefinitely as professional singers—with that single reservation which Peggy expressed for all of them: "But we would like to continue singing just as long as Mr. Welk will have us."

Since Welk wants to keep them with his organization indefinitely and since Welk appears destined to remain indefinitely on television, it would seem that the Lennon Sisters will be with us for a long, long time.

None of the girls has a great desire to go to college. Diane, who finished high school in the spring, says she has plenty to do helping her mother around the house in Venice where the four sisters have four young brothers and a baby sister—with another Lennon scheduled to arrive late this year.

None of them reads a note of music. Coached by their father William, a former professional singer who now is a field salesman for a dairy, they rehearse daily and informally Diane usually pitches a song on B flat and they work it out from there.

Their success has enabled the Lennon family to move into a larger house in Venice. But there's not a sign that success has spoiled them.

New Troop Chartered

Boy Scout Troop 29, of St. Luke's Catholic church in Youngsville, was invested in a special ceremony held by Troop 6 in St. Joseph's church, Warren, on Monday evening. Participants included Joe Acks, Harry Cooper and Robert Wilcox, with two Explorer Scouts and 11 troop members.

Scout kermies and Tenderfoot pins were presented to Richard Muczynski, Danny Kulebsky, Andrew Zolko, Edward Mulvey and Tony Baran. Father Charles Hurley accepted the new troop's charter, as it was officially presented by Harry Cooper, and spoke briefly to the boys on Scouting. William Shine will serve the new unit as Scoutmaster.

Explorer Scouts To Attend Order Of Arrow Camp

Five Explorer scouts from Chief Complanter Council Boy Scouts of America with their adult leaders, will participate in the 43rd anniversary National Conference of Order of the Arrow at Kansas University, Lawrence, Kansas, August 25 through 28 with more than 2,000 scouts.

Those leaving here by station wagon August 23, are Paul Shogren, Bill Lombard, Jerry Sheppard, Cameron Stewart and Bill Elmhurst. They will camp out en route.

Theme of the four day conference is "Brothers in Service—Leaders in Camping."

After registration, delegates will enjoy pre-conference activities including movies and athletic events. Opening general session is scheduled for Monday afternoon with a spectacular safety show in the evening.

The Conference of fellowship, training, and exchange of ideas is the only national meeting of its kind to be run entirely by young men whose ages average between 17 and 20.

Order of the Arrow is a national brotherhood of Scout honor campers with a membership of nearly 110,000 experienced campers of Boy Scouts of America, in whose program it has an official place. A total of 501 local Boy Scout councils have the Order as part of their year-round camping program.

Local delegates to the Conference are members of Chief Complanter Lodge of Chief Complanter Council Chartered in 1954, it has 70 members under Lodge Chief Gary Borton, 17, Youngsville.

Members of the Order are selected by fellow campers as worthy examples of living the Scout Oath and Law. Order develops and maintains camp traditions and spirit and generally promotes camping among Boy Scout troops and Explorer units. It is recognized as an influential force in teaching democratic principles, Scouting ideals and good citizenship.

In addition to workshop sessions on many phases of Order of the Arrow work, the program includes a camping fair, beef barbecue, Indian pageant, gigantic fellowship campfire program and many other varied activities.

MAY HAVE TO CHANGE SIGNS—When the late "Lute" Pollard coined the phrase "Biggest Little Town on the Map" to describe the community of Youngsville, the publisher of the Courier did not envision the modern equipment Borough Council would soon secure. The new streetsweeper, with Leonard Eastman as operator, may make necessary a change in signs placed at entrances to the town, in order to make them read "Biggest and Cleanest." At the monthly meeting of Council it was reported by Superintendent Sanford a schedule of sweeping days and hours will soon be set up and signs posted. (Courier Photo).

Religion in the News

By HAROLD D.S. MILNER

SPEARFISH, S. D. (AP)—Each year, hundreds of thousands of persons—religious or just plain curious—make a pilgrimage to what has been called the American Oberammergau.

The event is the Black Hills Passion Play, the story of Jesus' last week on earth presented three weekly from June through August in Spearfish and from January through Easter in Lake Wales, Fla.

Since it was first staged in 1932, the Black Hills Passion Play has been presented about 5,000 times and has been witnessed by more than five million persons.

The steadily mounting attendance is gratifying to Josef Meier, a German immigrant who brought the play to the United States in the depths of the depression and many times saw the cast outnumber the audience.

Meier, who has portrayed Christ in the production several thousand times, says it's faith that holds his small interdenominational troupe together. Often he has seasoned short ratings with the admonition: "The important thing is that they (the audience) go home with the story of Jesus."

The Black Hills Passion Play is a slightly modernized version of one presented for centuries in Germany. Embellishments include delicate lighting and the realism of three camels, numerous horses, donkeys, a flock of white fantailed pigeons, stirring organ music and a select chorus.

Performances are given at Spearfish every Sunday, Tuesday and Thursday on a 2½ block long outdoor stage.

The elements definitely have been kind. Over a 20-year period at Spearfish only 13 performances have been canceled because of rain. In Lake Wales, five performances have been rained out in six seasons.

News of Hollywood

By BOB THOMAS
AP Motion Picture Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Notes and comment on the Hollywood scene—Elizabeth Taylor is coming out of her bereavement over the death of Mike Todd. She is often dating Arthur Loew Jr., scion of the show business family and a friend since her early years at MGM. And Liz has indicated that she will be available for film roles that appeal to her.

"After Todd's death, she didn't care if she worked or not," said Richard Brooks, who directed her in "Cat on a Hot Tin Roof." "She finished the picture only because Mike was so hepped up on it. Now she wants to work some more."

Brooks said it was tough and go when Liz returned to work after the tragedy. A line like "You don't know what it is to lose someone you love" would break her up and work had to be suspended for the rest of the day.

Audrey Hepburn is not worried about being directed by her husband Mel Ferrer for the first time in "Green Mansions." After all, she argues, they have appeared together in a movie ("War and Peace"), on the stage ("Ondine") and on TV ("Mayerling").

"Marriage is a pretty complex relationship," she says. "If Mel and I can live together, we certainly ought to be able to work together."

Gary Crosby's comment re Papa Bing's TV deal with ABC: "I understand he makes some films for them and then they give him the network." Gary wants no part of a series for himself, favors guest shots only.

Hugh O'Brien didn't blow up over the renaming of his feature Western to "The Friend who Walked the West." Says Hugh: "As long as it sells, I don't care what they call it. As far as I'm concerned, it can be 'The Teenage Friend from Outer Space who Walked the West for the FBI'."

"The Fly" was a big hit. Now comes "The Spider." This may confirm your suspicions that the movie business is getting buggy.

HOT STOVE WORLD SERIES

You don't have to be a rabid baseball fan to enjoy the thrills that will be provided during the Hot Stove League Little World Series, scheduled for Saturday afternoon at War Memorial Field, preceded by a parade to traverse the business section en route to the park about eleven o'clock.

This year the annual benefit is arranged in tribute to the well known founder of the activity which has meant so much to the youth of the community since it was organized over ten years ago, and as such has been appropriately designated as "Charlie Musante Day", an idea that has been wholeheartedly approved by the rank and file of Hot Stove officials and citizens generally.

Starting time of play-offs, as scheduled on the program, is as follows: Bantams, 12 noon; Mid-gets one p. m.; Cadets two o'clock; Intermediates four and Juniors beginning at 5:30.

A full afternoon of exciting baseball entertainment, and all for the benefit of Kiwanis Club and Hot Stove Welfare Funds.

ANOTHER BREAK FOR SHOPPERS

Area shoppers are reminded that August Dollar Days with seventy local business establishments participating, continue through this evening and all day tomorrow.

Advertisements in Thursday's 34-page issue of the Times-Mirror contained scores of suggestions for buying fall and winter necessities at Dollar Day savings. They also offer opportunities to stock up on needed supplies in preparing children to return to school activities less than four weeks off.

Despite the electrical storms accompanied by heavy downpours that visited the area last evening the annual School Music Boosters' Club ice cream social was greatly enjoyed last evening notwithstanding the fact that it was held indoors, and not on Beatty School lawn as originally planned. As usual musical programs presented by both the Dragon and Dungaree bands added much to the gaiety of the occasion, held in the commodious cafeteria.

Marlow Looks At TODAY'S NEWS

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower's news conference this week—his first since the Middle East crisis began—was short on solid answers, but long on five things which have consistently marked his news conferences.

These were a high moral tone, generalities, rambling sentences, vagueness on some very important issues, and an apparent desire not to offend various groups and factions in the United States.

Since taking office in 1953 Eisenhower has repeatedly moralized on issues. Wednesday, defending this country against Soviet charges of Middle East aggression, he talked at length about freedom and liberty for small nations.

But he was far from specific when it came to explaining his administration's ideas for maintaining tranquility and stability in the area. To quote his own words, he said he would have to talk "in the generality."

When Eisenhower speaks he sounds emphatic and positive even when he's generalizing. But when his words are examined later in transcript it is often difficult to be sure of exactly what he means.

This is because he has a habit of letting his sentences ramble—scrambling them by starting sentences within sentences and leaving them unfinished. This was particularly apparent in about his first two White House years.

Then his sentence structure seemed to improve. He sounded more precise. In that time, of course, he had acquired a much firmer grasp of his job and the problems of government.

Nevertheless, in these past few months he's returned to rambling—scrambling.

Secretary of State Dulles, on the other hand, is extremely articulate and grammatical in his news conferences. He's a lawyer and it shows. His ideas are well and quickly organized in tidy sequence.

Two of the most important issues facing this country now are a solution of the Middle East problem and, in keeping with the Supreme Court's order, getting on with public school integration in the South, which opposes racial mixing.

On both issues Eisenhower was vague Wednesday. It seemed clear from what he said he does not have now a thought-out plan for the Middle East or the school question.

Asked if he had any plans to head off tension in the South in the upcoming school year by personal action, talks or instructions to the Justice Department, he said:

He hadn't planned any speeches. He had long tried to point out that "more law" will never solve the problem and that he believes "we have got to look within ourselves."

But he was careful not to say—as he has always been careful in his public statements in this field—anything which might offend white Southerners. Despite repeated questions in the past, he's even avoided saying whether he approves the Supreme Court decision.

This avoidance of offense has been characteristic of Eisenhower, going back to his earliest days in the presidency, except during a political campaign when he does his job as a Republican politician and kicks the Democrats.

For example: Even during the climatic days of the career of the late Sen. Joseph McCarthy (R-Wis.), and even after McCarthy was publicly taking swipes at him, Eisenhower leaned over backwards to avoid offending McCarthy or his followers.

World Series Day in Warren

Here and There

In connection with the forthcoming Hot Stove World Series Saturday afternoon at War Memorial Field we take the liberty of reprinting the following from the official "scoreboard" which will be distributed at the park during the games. Entitled "Warren Kiwanis in 1958" it says:

Consists of a group of business and professional men working for the welfare of Warren County Youth. The program is an old one in that every child sick or well needs help in his work or play. Planned play and work must be guided and often times must be paid for and that gives the Warren Kiwanians their purpose: Helping Youth.

Any efforts made by Kiwanians themselves is voluntary, no fees or charges are collected by the club nor any members. All time is furnished gratis.

Warren Kiwanis is 65 members strong, headed by a board of directors of 12 members, and 4 officers. Programs and spending is a planned part of every directors' meeting. Work is then delegated and divided among the entire membership. The principal source of all funds received in order that we may help Warren County Youth is derived yearly or annually by fund raising. The last few years has been in cooperation with the local Warren County Hot Stove League. The bulk of the funds go to Kiwanis and a percentage to the Hot Stove League for their efforts in the coming year.

Since the money received is used without profit, it goes a long way in helping the youth of our County. For example, help was extended to the Girl Scouts for their swimming pool in order that they may have a filtration system safeguarding the girls' health. The Boy Scouts were assisted in a special program needing special funds which they did not have. Boys and girls unable to attend summer camps were sent as a part of our program.

Playground equipment was purchased and installed for our children to play in good safe places and out of the way of traffic accidents. One of the future young Warren Farmers was presented with a calf to help him start on his own. A hospital bed program has been in operation for years, magazines are purchased for the sick and in sick rooms. Private problems pertaining to medical care or wheel chairs for special cases where a child is concerned are problems soon answered by Kiwanis and its membership. A Hot Stove League team is sponsored by Kiwanians for the boys to enjoy outdoor sports.

Kiwanians are proud to be a member of this community and work with the other civic groups to keep this area the grand place that it is and will be in the future for our fine young people. The writer of this history believes that the membership in Warren Kiwanis will all agree that our police and court records bear out the fact we are fortunate in having the fine boys and girls that are living in this area, we are proud of them all.

Hot Stove League Charlie Musante Day activities inspired a search through files of sixty years ago to discover what, if anything was happening in the way of baseball in the borough in 1898, and to our surprise we discover a church league functioning with teams represented as follows:

Presbyterians, Methodists, Episcopalians and Lutherans. It was on Tuesday, August 24, that the Methodists defeated the Episcopalians by a score of 29 to 2, in a game that was described in the Evening Mirror as follows: "The Episcopalians were badly routed by the Methodists at Recreation Park Tuesday afternoon. The former played the loosest game yet seen on the grounds. They appeared considerably weaker than previously. Their pitchers, Hegerty and Morris, were both fairly effective but the support was miserable. The Methodists, on the other hand, appear to be growing stronger. Considerable interest is centered on the game between the Methodists and the Presbyterians which will take place next Tuesday. Each have won two games and they are considered evenly matched. The next game will be between the Lutherans and the Episcopalians Friday afternoon." The Methodist lineup was as follows:

Folkman, c; Dodge, lf; Kitchen, 3b; Winger, 1b; Welch, 2b; Coates, ss; H. Magee, cf; R. Magee, p, and Mesenger, if. The Episcopal lineup—Alexander, ss; Neil, c, 2b; Morris, rf and p; Stone, 2b and cf; Hegerty, p and cf; Puellhart, 1b; Kehr, 2b; Rogers, cf and rf; Schnur, rf. In the issue of August 6, 1898, we find a story about a game between the Lutherans and Beech street described in this manner: "The Lutherans and Beech street ball teams played a hotly-contested ball game at Recreation Park Friday afternoon. The Episcopalians were scheduled to play but could not get a team together and so the game was forfeited. The West End Boys gave the Lutherans a lively chase and threatened to win over several times. Most of the errors were made by two players, the exhibition on the whole being very creditable for amateur clubs. The Methodists and Presbyterians

Business Mirror

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP) — Purists blame past government deficit spending for the postwar waves of inflation that makes balancing your family budget so tough today. They fear that new deficits now building up will be the cause of your getting into even a tighter bind.

Economists differ on what the government can and should do to offset this inflation or to keep it within bounds.

Current deficit goes back to a combination of Sputniks and recession. Sputnik triggered a quick rise in defense spending plans. The recession has cut back on corporate incomes and to some extent on personal incomes. Even with tax relief hopes out the window, Treasury collections are off.

Combine more defense spending with less tax revenue and you go into red ink fast.

The classic way that Treasury deficit financing leads to inflation, with all its woes of a rising cost of living and a shrinking dollar, is this:

To raise the 10 to 12 billion dollars of new money the Treasury now believes it must have this fiscal year, it apparently plans to borrow from the commercial banks. The federal reserve system will see that they have enough money to lend the Treasury by increasing the money supply.

The added treasury securities the banks take on are regarded much the same as cash and will make it possible for them to extend much more credit to any business taking off on an inflationary foot.

The classic case of too much money ready and willing to chase after goods will be with us again as in the early postwar years. But this time there will be too few goods only if demand should rise above the present over capacity to produce.

The federal government will be putting into the economy perhaps 12 billion more dollars than it will be taking out in taxes. State and local governments also are borrowing to spend.

Some estimate that by the final months of this year the three levels of government will be spending at an annual rate of nearly $5 billion dollars, or 6½ billion more than a year ago. Much of the spending will be on the cuff—inflationary.

What can hold this in check? If business recovery is enough to raise corporate earnings substantially, the Treasury will rake in more and cut its deficit some. If an over-enthusiastic business recovery sires speculation, the Fed could turn from easy money to tight money and try to dry up as much of the new Treasury money in the commercial banks as possible.

The administration, which speeded up the pace of government spending to ease the recession, could slacken the outgo again. Congress could cut back some of the spending programs it passed or is still considering as anti-recession measures.

New Corn Formula Ties Supports to Market Price

By PETER EDSON
NEA Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON—(NEA)—A new idea in farm price support legislation will be applied to next year's corn crop in the new farm bill which now seems certain to come out of Congress.

The Senate has passed it. The House will accept it unless, at the last minute, Agriculture Committee representatives upset the bus because their earlier omnibus farm bill was killed.

The House bill calls for a national referendum of farmers on Dec. 15 to approve the plan. This provision would have to be worked out in conference with the Senate.

The formula now in effect ties farm price supports to "parity." This is the ratio of things farmers sell to the things they buy. The price support level under this formula has dropped from $1.60 a bushel in 1932 to $1.36 this year.

The way it has worked out, there has often been no relationship between support prices and market prices.

To get away from this, the new formula will tie price supports to the average market price of corn for the three previous years.

Secretary of Agriculture Ezra Taft Benson will determine this price early next year, before corn planting time. Present indications are that it will be around $1.15 a bushel. But it will be not less than $1.10, by law.

THE NEW CORN PLAN will also do away with acreage allotments, which have never been popular. Last year the non-cooperators overplanted corn by 85 per cent.

There were no penalties for this overplanting. Furthermore, since 1956 Secretary Benson has made corn raised on over-allotment acreage eligible for price supports at $1.10.

In 1957 only 15 per cent of the corn raised was eligible for price support loans. Even so, the government will take over an estimated 300 million bushels of 1957 corn between Aug. 1 and Sept. 30. This will raise the government's corn holdings to around 1.3 billion bushels, acquired at a total cost of 2.25 billion dollars.

All this overproduction has offset the theoretical advantages of having acreage allotments to reduce planting.

Under the new plan, an individual farmer will be able to plant as much or as little corn as he chooses.

Under present law, if a farmer overplants his acreage allotment, he is not eligible to put any of his other acreage into the soil bank conservation reserve.

Under the new plan, all corn will be eligible for price support loans under the new formula. There will be no corn restrictions on putting land into the conservation acreage reserve.

AT FIRST GLANCE, this might make it appear that more corn will be placed under price support loans and that the government's costs will be higher.

Department of Agriculture officials think this won't happen. The reason is that nearly 85 per cent of the U.S. corn crop is normally consumed on farms as livestock feed. Only the remaining 15 per cent goes into commercial markets.

Individual farmers might turn more corn over to the government on loan under the new formula than they have under present law. The long-range effects are expected to be:

Government price support loans will be reduced, without changing the total production of corn.

Livestock markets will be stabilized and more corn will be made available for feed as population increases.

Farmers will be permitted to grow corn instead of being forced to plant other feed grains and grain sorghum.

MR. AND MRS. DONALD C. DEVORE

Holy Cross church in Spangler, Pa., was the scene of a lovely July 26 wedding, uniting in marriage Anna T. Valenti, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Valenti of that community, and Donald C. DeVore, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred DeVore of North Warren.

The double ring ceremony was performed at 11:00 a. m. the Rev. Vincent Schlemmer officiating before an altar decorated with vases of white gladioli and carnations.

Escorted by her father, the bride was attired in a ballerina-length gown of white chantilly lace over a net underskirt, the bodice having long tapering sleeves and a Peter Pan collar. Complementing jewelry was a pearl necklace and earrings, a tiara of seed pearls held her veil, and her bouquet of white carnations was fashioned as a cross.

Maid of honor and only attendant for her sister, Christina Valenti wore waltz length chantilly lace in mint green, with mitts and picture hat to match, and carried a bouquet of yellow roses.

Thomas Solock, North Warren, was best man for Mr. DeVore; ushers were the bride's brother, Anthony Valenti, and Andrew Hecker of Johnstown.

Wearing white accessories and corsage of white carnations, the bride's mother chose a lavender print, the bridegroom's mother was in navy blue.

The wedding breakfast followed at the home of the bride, and a reception was held from 2:00 until 5:00 at the Spangler Legion Home, white appointments featuring a four-tier wedding cake.

After returning from a honeymoon through the New England States, the newlyweds are making their home at 203½ Main street, North Warren. NO ART CLASS
Because of the Bestor Plaza Show at Chautauqua on Saturday, the regular session of Playcan art classes will be omitted. One week from Saturday, August 16, there will be a special class open to anyone who would like to bring work for criticism. This session will be held on the grounds of the Barley home at Venturatown or in the basement of Warren Public Library, in event of rain.

Dorothy Roe Says

Associated Press Women's Editor

Want to be on a TV quiz show when you come to New York? Almost everybody does, says Marjorie Mason, an extroverted blonde who has made a highly successful career of hunting down the ideal contestants for most of the big quiz shows on television. And what is the ideal contestant? "Somebody just like me," says Marj, flashing a 500-watt smile and wiggling her eyebrows. "Outgoing, expressive, vital, intelligent — you know? Somebody who gets all excited about things. Somebody who doesn't look too bored or sophisticated. A wholesome average American type."

This combination of showoff and solid citizen is not easy to find, says Marj, even though she gets an average of 2,500 letters a day from people all over the country seeking a chance to compete on the TV giveaway show Bid 'n' Buy, which occupies most of her time these days.

"We read every letter," she says, "but most of the contestants I find by personal hunting. I take sightseeing buses, I hang around Grand Central Station, I sit in hotel lobbies and I haunt theater lobbies at intermission time. When I see somebody who looks bright, happy, enthusiastic and expressive I go up and introduce myself, present my card and say, 'Would you like to be on television?'"

"You'd think a lot of out-of-towners would be suspicious, and think I was running some kind of a confidence game, but very few do. I guess I just look honest."

British Guiana Report

Pastor Dale L. Soderberg of Horseheads, N. Y., poses with just a few of the many souvenirs he picked up in his See-It-Yourself tour of the British Guiana mission field.

Minister of Our Saviour's Lutheran church in upper New York state and son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Soderberg of Warren, the Rev. Dale L. Soderberg will be guest speaker at 8:00 p. m. Monday in First Lutheran church for the quarterly meeting of United Lutheran Church Women of the parish.

Recently back from a quick jaunt to mission stations in British Guiana, Pastor Soderberg will illustrate his talk with colored slides and will have much to offer in the way of first-hand information.

opening lead in your own hand you lay down the ace of spades and drop the queen from West.

Should you lay down the king and try to drop the jack also or should you go over to dummy and finesse against East?

The only information at your disposal is that West is one of the best players in the world and if he held both queen and jack he would be just as likely to drop the queen as to drop the jack.

In this case mathematics dictates that you must go to dummy and finesse against East. True, the chance of a specific two-two break is slightly greater than that of a specific three-one break but there is a second point to consider.

Give West the singleton queen and he would have had to play it. Give him the doubleton queen — jack and he might just as well have played the jack. Hence the odds in favor of the finesse now become almost two to one and it should definitely be taken.

The Mature Parent

Parent's Fear of Showing Anger Is No Help to Child

BY MRS. MURIEL LAWRENCE

(Mrs. Muriel Lawrence is on vacation. This is the fourth of six excerpts that will appear during her absence from "Don't Be Afraid of Your Child" by Hilde Bruch, M.D., copyright 1952 by Hilde Bruch. Used by permission of the publisher, Farrar, Straus & Cudahy, Inc.)

Through the analysis of many young people, I have become convinced that in many families the soul-searching doubt about doing the "right" thing, the deliberate efforts to suppress real feelings and to act the way a good parent is supposed to act, all create an atmosphere of anxiety, doubt and uncertainty.

What the child perceives is not the correct technique but the wavering doubt and often dishonesty of the parents.

It conveys to the child a feeling that parents are not trustworthy because they are always finding fault with themselves and that the world must be a very dangerous and difficult place if even the grownups do not know what to do.

In general terms I might say that parents who do not doubt their genuine love for their children are not afraid to show anger when there is provocation.

Nobody can tell what the child will experience when he sees his mother angry. He may be crestfallen and try to avoid situations that provoke her anger. But also he may be pleased that he gets a rise out of her. He may fight back and be angry himself or he may be completely indifferent as long as he knows he can outlast her and get what he wants anyhow. The child's reaction makes the whole difference in the situation.

If parents under the influence of psychological teaching never permit themselves to show any disturbed reaction, a child may resort to more and more aggressive behavior in order to get finally an emotional response from them.

It is frightening to a child to feel that he can get away with everything and anything. He needs the knowledge that his parents watch over him. This reassurance makes it possible for him to experiment without danger of going too far.

From parents I hear over and over again such questions as "How should I feel? Should I be angry at him and show it?"

There is no answer to such questions. Nobody can tell a parent whether he should feel angry because he either is angry at a certain act or he isn't.

Woman's Worries Little? Not When They're Added Up

Maybe women have it as easy as men claim they do. But think of all the little minor worries they have that never trouble men. Such as . . .

What to wear whenever they receive an invitation to a party.

What to have for dinner, a nagging little worry that comes up daily.

What to do about their gray hairs—to dye or not to dye. Men solve that problem by getting their hair cropped closer and closer to their heads.

How to work out the chattering detail so that every child in the family gets to where he is supposed to be on time and is picked up on time.

How to keep their friends from finding out how old they are.

How to plan a party menu that is different enough to impress the women present.

How to break the news to Papa that they've bought something that a woman views as an absolute necessity and a man views as out and out extravagance.

How to get Papa in a relaxed mood before giving him the news that Junior has crumpled a fender on the family car or that Sis has to have a new formal.

How to keep the house spic and span, once it is clocked up for company, until the company arrives. The younger the children, the harder this is to manage.

How to get the kids to do the chores their Dad decides they are old enough to do.

How to look ten years younger than they are.

Little things mean so much

A small hand in yours . . . trusting you, loving you. A time could come when that small hand will not have your protection. If you haven't made a will, do it now. If your will is several years old, you should bring it up-to-date. Let our Trust Department help you set up a Trust for your loved ones. Come with your attorney for a discussion of your estate plans. Planning Session for Calvary Baptist Units

The four circles of Calvary Baptist Women's Missionary Society met this week for special fellowship activity and programs. Individual group gatherings were as follows:

Nettie Turnwall Circle, with Mrs. Robin Merritt as chairman, enjoyed a luncheon supper at the home of Mrs. Dorothy Ahlgren, with 21 members and visitors present. Highlights of the program were a musical reading, "Child of the King", by Miss Ellen Swanson with Mrs. B. E. Shellen in the piano, and an old fashioned hymn singing by the entire group.

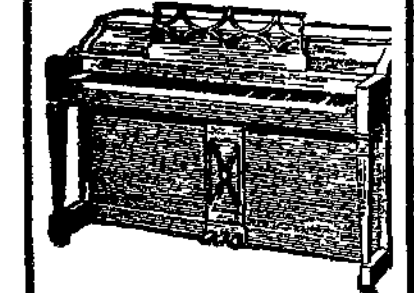

The William Tappan Circle, chaired by Mrs. Myron Rydholm, met with Mrs. Lee Olsen, when the program chairman, Mrs. Kenneth Brown, presented an interesting missionary study on British Columbia. Composed of young women of the church and headed by Mrs. Richard Neely, Signe Erickson Circle met with Mrs. Ben Obinger, the guest speaker being the group's missionary, Florence Carlberg, of Erie.

A winter roast at the home of Mrs. J. Walter Thompson in Lander occupied the John Klingberg Children's Home in New Britain. Conn. Another feature was a snowed of handmade and readymade children's garments for the same home.

The September meeting of Calvary Baptist WMS will be a combined session of all circles with the Middle East Conference director of missions, the Rev. C. J. Sunstom, and General Conference secretary of home missions, the Rev. William Turnwall, as guest speakers.

Boosters' Social Is Success Despite Rain

The rains came, in great quantities—but they failed to keep the people of Warren away from the School Music Boosters' annual ice cream social at Beatty Junior High School Thursday evening.

A checkup with the committee shows more than 1,400 persons were served in the school cafeteria, while equipment was hastily transferred when threatening skies foretold the downpour soon to come.

The band concert was moved indoors, also, Director Harry Summers putting the Dragon and Dugaree Bands through their paces in the auditorium in a program that showed much has been accomplished in the Summer Band and Orchestra School concluding today.

Success of the annual benefit is another indication that folks of Warren back the Boosters' efforts for the school music program 100%. Various projects over the years have come through successfully despite obstacles encountered and Booster officials are again grateful for the wholehearted support which has made their program possible.

Daisy Campbell, Pirate Fan Recalls Friendship With 'Flying Dutchman'

Daisy and the great "Flying Dutchman" renewed friendship when they met here in 1946 on the occasion of Honus Wagner Day, a tribute to the man who once played with Warren in the old Iron and Oil League. Honus was 70 when this picture was taken. Titusville Herald engraving.

Mrs. Daisy Campbell, former resident of Warren, now of Titusville, 68 years old, but you'd never know it, shown on her favorite means of transportation, a bicycle. She can really make that thing go, too. Photo courtesy Titusville Herald.

This is Bruce, Daisy's grandson, a future Hot Stover who will no doubt be the next home run king. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Ahlquist, Orchard street, and Daisy's only grandson. It is hoped that the oversized hat he is wearing will fit a little better someday, which is Daisy's fondest hope. He holds a baseball, presented him by the Recreation Commission of Titusville, in one hand, and in the other, what else (?) a daisy. One of Sparky's best Timesphotos.

There's nothing like a hobby, or a good healthy interest in some sport like baseball, for instance, to keep one young, and if you don't believe it just take a look at Mrs. Daisy Campbell, above, who, at the age when everyone retires to the ole rocking chair, is still going strong.

Besides being a devoted fan of the Pirates, and friend of the late Honus Wagner, she is official scorer for the Titusville Teener League, organizer and member of the VFW Auxiliary, past president of the American Legion Auxiliary, active member of the Lady Drake Rebekah Lodge, and in her spare (?) time might be seen on a street corner selling Blue Crutches, Buddy Poppies, or giving freely of her efforts for other worthy causes.

Recently the subject of an article by Harry Ridgway in the Titusville Herald, Daisy is the proud owner of autographs of many baseball greats including Babe Ruth, Ty Cobb, Connie Mack, Cy Young, Burleigh Grimes, and others. She has a scrap book and her pride and joy is a baseball autographed with names of 21 famous players, which she has "preserved" in a glass case.

Daisy's friendship with Honus began in 1902 when her dad, George Warner, brought three men from the railroad station by horse and buggy to his farm near Garland. The men arrived from Pittsburgh on the DAV & P train, and, by pre-arrangement, came to the Warner home to stay for a few days and take advantage of the excellent hunting.

One of the visiting nimrods was a big, barrel-chested awkward young man, with a big ear-to-ear grin, about 26 years of age, who became well acquainted with Mr. Warner's curly-haired 12-year-old daughter, Daisy, a friendship that lasted until the man died a few years ago in his early eighties. Though he hardly looked the part, he was a major league baseball player, he had just finished his first season with the Pittsburgh Pirates, and within the next ten years was destined to become the greatest shortstop in history of baseball, even up to its present time. His name ranks with such players as Ty Cobb, Tris Speaker, Christy Mathewson, Rube Waddell, and many other old-time stars of the diamond. He was Honus Wagner, the "Flying Dutchman" of baseball. Honus came back again and again to the Warner farm to relax from the summer's grind, and naturally enough, he and Daisy talked baseball. It was then she began to follow the Pirates, principally to see what Honus was doing. All during the years, Mrs. Campbell's devotion to the Pirates has not been of the "fair weather" type. Despite ribbings of friends, she has been a devoted fan, and nowadays she laughs and says: "Those people are not kidding me so much now."

In 1938, she met Honus again here in Warren, where he was guest of honor of Honus Wagner Day. Fans here sort of adopted him as a native son, and they met here again for the same occasion in '46. Daisy's greatest thrill came when she attended the All-Star game at Forbes Field and Honus called her down to the bench introducing her to many famous players.

As one of Titusville's staunchest supporters of recreation baseball, she rode in a special car with Mayor C. C. Hampton, at the head of a parade to officially open the season this summer.

Always interested in young people, she conducted a Sunday School class, and some of her former students now in service, or grown up and moved away, correspond with her regularly.

Daisy and her husband have many friends in Warren, for they were residents here until '41, when they moved to Titusville. Daisy has a daughter, Mrs. F. Walter Ahlquist, Jr., who with her husband, a representative of State Farm Mutual Insurance Company, and children, lives at 209 Orchard street, Warren.

When Bruce Ahlquist, now 14 months old, was born in Warren General Hospital, the Recreation Commission of Titusville presented Daisy with a brand new Wilson baseball to give to her only grandson. The ball, eventually, was autographed by doctors, as well as by Ed Lowrey, editor of the Times-Mirror. "Bruce" has two big sisters, Becky, nine, who is in the twirling corps, and Mary Ann, age six.

State Highway Dep't Men Fired in Beaver

PITTSBURGH (AP)—L. J. Curran, Pittsburgh district engineer for the State Highways Dept., today confirmed the dismissal of George Kisiday as Beaver County highways superintendent.

Curran said Mike M. Joseph of Aliquippa, an acting mechanic for the department in Beaver County, also has been dismissed. The dismissals became effective at the end of work Tuesday, Curran said.

He added that he sent letters dismissing the men on instructions from the State Highways Dept. in Harrisburg. Curran said the letters gave no reason for the firings, and declined to comment further.

Jaycees Planning To Sponsor Hole-In-One Contest

Warren's first community-wide Hole-in-One contest will be sponsored by Warren Area Junior Chamber of Commerce Saturday, August 23 at Bill's Driving Range in Starbuck.

Duffers and par shooters, professionals and divet diggers are all invited and urged to enter the competition according to Hal Conarro, Jaycee chairman of the project. Conarro emphasized that the hole toward which entrants will shoot will be so set up that everyone, regardless of ability, will have an equal chance to score a Hole-in-One.

As yet, the prize structure has not been established, but Chairman Conarro said that a substantial cash prize will be offered to anyone who scores a Hole-in-One during the day. In addition, many other prizes will be offered to contestants who hit closest to the hole during an hour's period. Full information on prizes will be announced next week.

Discussing physical set-up for the contest, Conarro said that Jaycees plan to layout a regular golf green about 100 yards from the area where contestants shoot from. This distance is less than most Hole-in-One contests and thus affords participants a better chance at scoring the coveted Hole-in-One. Everyone who enters will get three shots at the hole for $1.

Facilities of Bill's Driving Range will be entirely turned over to Jaycees for the one day contest. Golf balls are being donated by the driving range and clubs will also be available. Competitors, however, may provide their own clubs and golf balls if they wish.

Rain date is August 30.

NEW YORK (AP)—Thornton Wilder, who has spent much of his life studying past cultures, doesn't believe a man should spend much time in his own personal past.

"I erase as I go along," he said cheerfully. "I look forward so much I have only an imperfect memory for the past."

"When your eyes are directed to the future, you have no hurt feelings over the praise or criticism of the moment—because, moment by moment, the present becomes the past."

"You have the sense of forever beginning your career, of trying to offer something new to interest the community."

At 61, the writer, a three-time Pulitzer Prize winner, still has all the eagerness of a stage-struck boy. One of his latest major plays, "The Matchmaker," has just been made into a film by Paramount, and he is currently working on seven one-act experimental plays.

Wilder, a white-mustached man with a booming laugh, regards his single act plays as "five-finger exercises" for his major dramas, two of which—"Our Town" and "The Skin of Our Teeth"—won Pulitzer Prizes. Earlier he won his first Pulitzer with "The Bridge of San Luis Rey," a novel.

"But a good one act play will pay you $5,000 a year in royalties," he remarked.

As a comfortable afterthought, he added, "I have three."

One of the most conscientious craftsmen of his generation, Wilder spent many years teaching literature by day and trying to create it at night.

"I had to write in stolen moments at midnight," he recalled. "But the older I grow the more I'm an early riser."

"I now try to get in two or three hours of writing before any-

FIRST CROSSING—Milano Construction Company of Erie created its own moving atoll earlier this week when the first pipe was laid under water for the new sewage treatment plant. Above a giant scoop and bull dozer partially dam Conewango Creek near Nu-Way Market as work progresses rapidly. The power shovel digs a trench about three feet below water level while the dozer piles a gravel dam encircling the creek incision. Then, as powerful sump pumps keep the pit relatively free of seepage, the large pipes are set in place. What gravel the shovel scoops from the bottom is dumped to it to continue its dry-earth path across the river. Conewango Creek crossing from the lot of Oak street to behind Nu-Way was completed without a hitch. Most trouble is expected in crossing Allegheny River from Clark street to Crescent Park. River bottom reportedly has a few large holes. Creek averaged water depth of two feet.—Timesphoto.

TO TOURNAMENT—Soda Mineral Softball team will enter first annual Pepsi Cola three-day Tournament at Meadville today, Saturday and Sunday. The Tournament is for teams in the tri-state area. In the above Timesphoto by Saylor, the players are, first row left to right: Chuck Pfister, "Monk" Murphy, Don Bak, Sparger, Luck Koebley, second row, same order: John Foley, Warren Check, Harold Brown; back row: John Beadine, Perk Cameron, Jack White, Dick White, Bill Brown.

SERIES PARTICIPANTS—Thomas Flexible Coupling, winners of Bantam Western Division of Hot Stove League, will battle Eastern division winners, Exchange Hotel, in tomorrow's World Series on Memorial Field at 12 p. m. Thomas won all nine of their contests, Exchange won eight, losing one to Clarendon.—Timesphoto by Saylor.

body else is stirring."

Unlike many modern authors, he doesn't believe that inspiration is mostly perspiration.

"Things are not written by a masterful willpower, but by the imagination. You can't get the two mixed up."

"I'm not even sure what form a work will take. I have one now, to be called 'The Widow of Monterey,' which I hope to write as soon as it makes up its mind whether it wants to be a play or novel."

A hopeless optimist himself—and determined to go on believing in the human race—he prefers comedy to tragedy.

"The gift to the public of laughter without malice is one of the most useful things a man can do," he said.

"Anybody can make a comedy which is cruel. It is very hard to make a comedy which is kind. To give a fellow feeling between the young and the old—that is art."

McDonald Denies He Will Resign USW Head

WASHINGTON, Pa. (AP)—David J. McDonald has emphatically denied reports that he will resign as president of the United Steelworkers.

"I will not resign," he declared Wednesday in a speech at the opening session of the annual conference of USW District 13. "I am so conceited," McDonald said, "as to believe that if the United Steelworkers of America ever needed Dave McDonald, they need him more in 1959 than they ever needed him before."

The delegates gave McDonald ovations both before and after his speech. At seven points in his talk, he was interrupted by applause.

Top Ten Drivers Ready to Start Again Saturday

Pit crews and drivers have worked feverishly on the 18 cars from a field of 30 which were involved in a mass pile-up at Stateline Speedway last Saturday, and most of them are now ready for tomorrow night's feature event, including all Top Ten drivers in Stateline's point standings.

Jim Patrick, Wellsville, current point leader, will be trying to repeat his feature win of three weeks ago, after two consecutive second place finishes. Two casualties of the mass tangle, John Seelye of Jamestown and Squirt Johns of Brockway, formerly first and second in points, will be back to scramble for the feature win.

Rumored reports say Dean Layfield, long time leader in points, is readying a new car, after encountering nothing but hard luck for the past few weeks with his present mount.

Fans will be keeping a close eye on another Brockway pilot, Don Bailey, who returned to Stateline last week after a year's retirement. Bailey was involved in a big crash that took him out of action. Until the big crash, Bailey was working up through the fast field of cars at a terrific rate, having moved from twenty-fourth to tenth place in just seven laps of the 50 lap main go.

Ken Johnson has fared out the damage in his new car he brought to Stateline last week, only to participate in the big tangle.

Ed Stayer of Allegany, who loosened some teeth and cut his lip badly in the last fracas, has recovered sufficiently to bend a throttle once more. Having driven at Bradford this week in a borrowed car, Ed expects to have the kinks ironed out of his own bus in time for tomorrow's show.

Stateline officials report that a full field of cars will be on hand at the fast 1-3 mile track through continuous work of crews on cars.

"I get a kick out of hearing people talk about the good old days," says Mrs. G. L. Dahlhausen of RD #2, Warren. "But I wouldn't want to give up our modern way of living!"

"Take my automatic electric water heater, for instance. It's just great! Believe me, Grandma never had it so good! When you have a house to keep clean—and laundry to do—and lots of dishes—you really appreciate the convenience of an electric water heater. It makes life so much easier!"

The POWER of FAITH

HOW AMERICANS WORSHIP The Protestants .1

America was settled to a considerable extent by Protestants seeking the right to worship God in their own way. Among them were the Pilgrims of Massachusetts, the Baptists in Rhode Island, the Quakers in Pennsylvania and the Episcopalians in Virginia.

It was thus no accident that a guaranty of religious freedom appears in the very first amendment to our Constitution, and that more than 250 denominations now thrive here. America prides itself on being a land of many faiths and creeds.

To record my own impressions of the many routes that men choose to find God, I set out recently with sketchbook in hand. In the course of my travels I visited many Protestant churches, joined in the prayers and hymns and listened to the sermons of many ministers. Although each church has its own individuality, there is about them an essential unity. As St. Paul said: "So we, being many, are one body in Christ, and everyone members one of another, having taken gifts different according to the grace that is given us."

AROUND THE WORLD

OUT OF THIS WORLD—James Dolezal, a helper at Chicago's Brookfield Zoo, is feeding a young filly that was bred to resemble the wild tarpan that once roamed Europe. Despite its stastiv qualities, the animal is domestic enough to eat from a feed bucket under the watchful eye of her mother.

ANYTHING FOR RELIEF — Actor Ricardo Montalban and his wife, Georgiana, got a few minutes' relief from the heat as they welcomed the cool wind from a plane's air conditioner in New York. Montalban was heading for Hollywood and home while on vacation from his musical comedy, "Jamaica," which is closed for the summer.

ON THE LAMB—This gray winter grain chiffon velvet daytime dress is collared in matching Persian lamb. The one-piece dress takes on a two-piece look from the elevated self-fabric waistband. The very wide fur collar is decorated with a bow made of the chiffon of the dress. The effect is one of good style for any wardrobe.

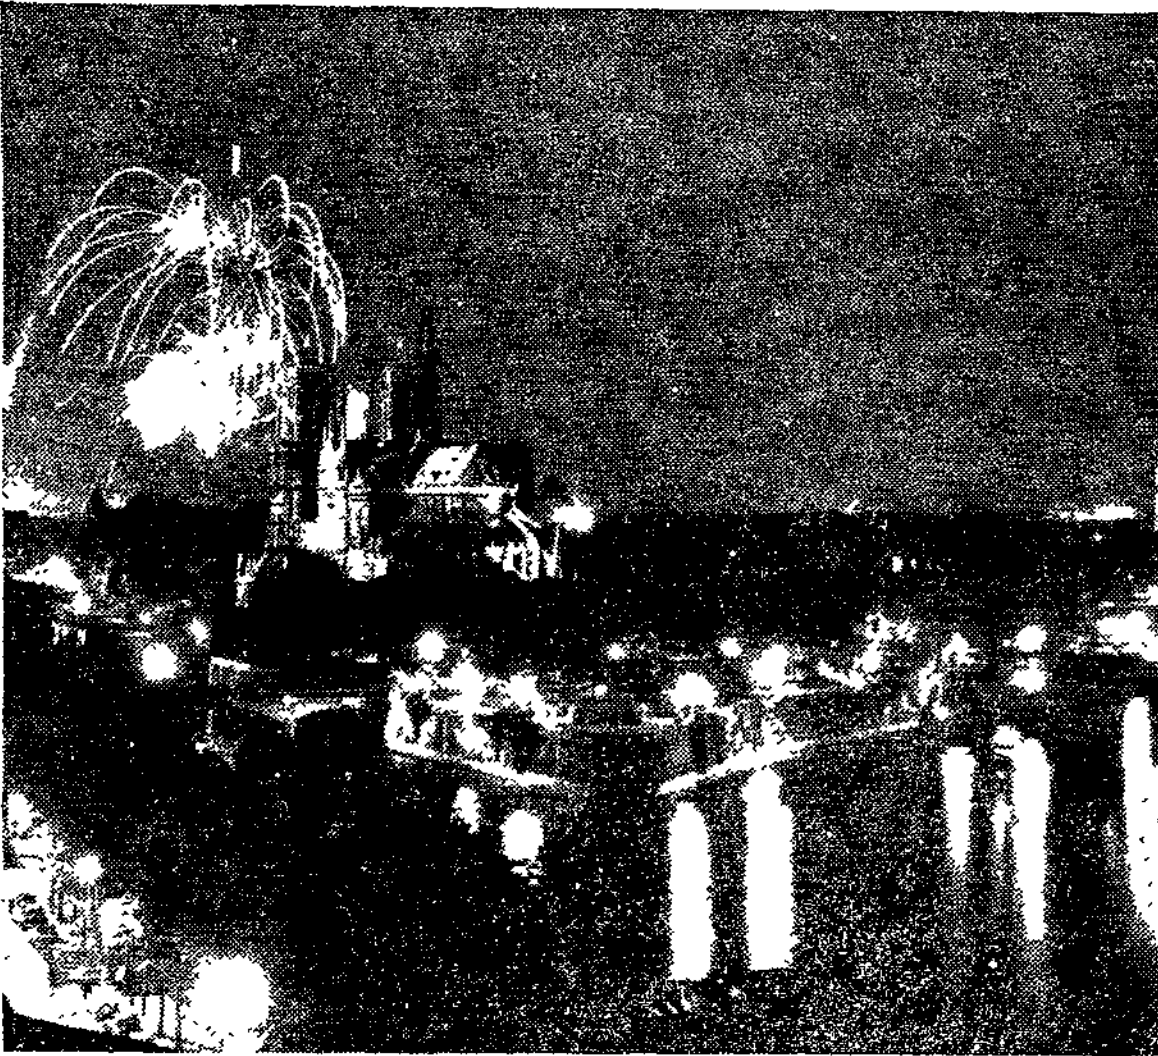

LIKE MARY'S LITTLE LAMB — In Windsor, Vt., Herbert Daignault, Jr., is taking his two pet geese for a stroll. He got them when they were four-weeks old, and they soon started to follow him everywhere—including to his summer job. Now, when it's time for their walk, the lad harnesses his pets with a device of his own making—and off they go.

THE LOWEST STANDARD

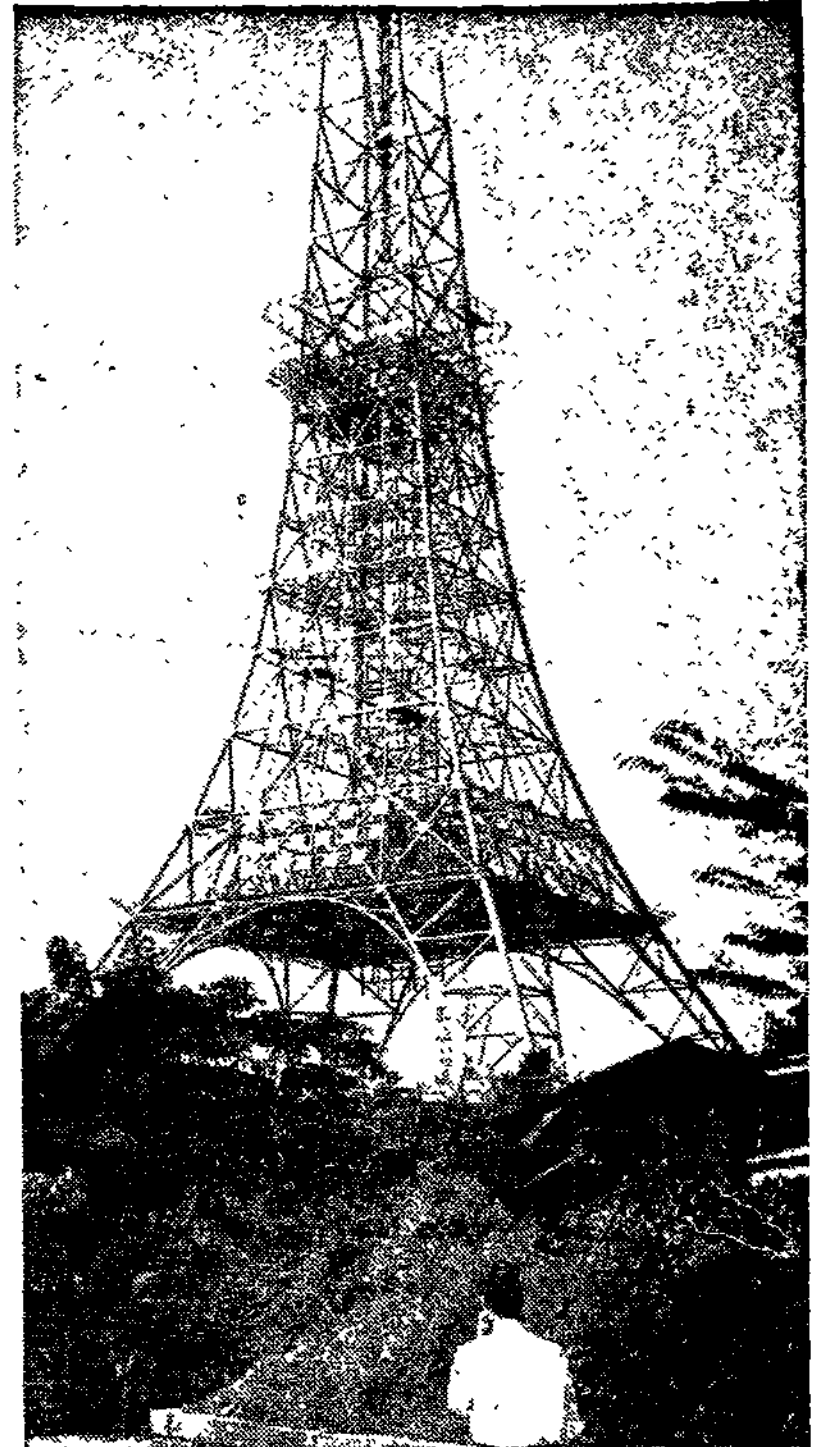

BARE EXISTENCE—Some Spanish-speaking "Texas Mexican" migrant children are shown taking a bath at the outdoor facilities in a migrant labor camp near Cape Charles, Va., top photo. The camp, a relatively "good" one as such places go, is made up of shacks which contain three rooms each, center. Up to six people live in each room. Like the family shown below. The migrant workers, who have the lowest standard of living in America, roam the country to follow the seasons where the crops are ripe.

THE LIGHT TOUCH—Bathed in the magical light of fireworks, Notre Dame Cathedral in Paris looks like a castle in a fairy tale. The French capital was the scene of this display during a national holiday.

TRAPPED!—Back on the beach is this 1400-pound bull after spending a year on Thompson's Island in Boston Harbor where it was on a farm operated by students. The animal was blindfolded and returned to the mainland in the barge-like craft shown in the background. It was sent to a farm near Wayland, Mass.

JAPANESE EYEFULL—It may appear that the famed Eiffel Tower is being torn down, but this scene is actually taking place in Tokyo. The Japanese TV tower is expected to be completed in December and its planned height of 1,088 feet will make it the world's tallest independent tower. It tops the Eiffel by 104 feet and will be the third highest man-made structure in the world.

WET PAINT—With dampened enthusiasm, a young painter sits sadly under an umbrella while rain splashes down on his work in Rome. He was among the 600 artists represented in the annual outdoor art fair which was hit by bad weather for the first time in the seven years it's been held.

THEY'RE THE FIRST — These Siberian Tiger cubs at the Como Park Zoo in St. Paul, Minn., are the first of their rugged kind to survive being born in captivity. They live in a special "cubator" rigged up for them by Minneapolis-Honeywell with thermostat and battery of electric bulbs to keep their cage at a precise 84 degrees.

Hospital Board Charter Member Dies at Age 93

Warren lost another of its oldest residents early today, when Miss Fannie Myra Smith, resident at Watson Memorial Home since 1942, died at 1:30 a. m. in Warren General Hospital, where she was admitted one week ago.

Miss Smith was born in Warren July 18, 1865, the youngest and last surviving child of eight born to Christian and Catherine Shafer Smith.

She was graduated from Warren High School with the Class of 1884 and served from that time until 1889 as librarian at Warren Public Library. Continuing her studies, she was graduated in 1892 from the Philadelphia School of Education and Orotary.

A charter member of the board of Warren Emergency Hospital, later and still known as Warren General Hospital, Miss Smith served it faithfully from 1898 to November 15, 1923, holding the offices of secretary, treasurer, accountant, and working in many other capacities to promote its growth and well-being. On May 20, 1954, the board publicly recognized her devotion to the institution by inviting her to turn the first shovel of earth for the addition which marked its modernization.

Miss Smith was also a charter member of Blue Stocking Club, when that group was formed in 1908 and was the last survivor of its organizers. Few present-day meetings were held without her presence and participation and here, too, her efforts will be greatly missed.

She was preceded in death by her parents, three brothers and four sisters, Simon, Joe and Charlie Smith, Susan Brubaker, Mary and Josephine Getz, and Salome Roy; and is survived by six nephews, three nieces, and one grand-nephew.

Miss Smith had been a member of First Presbyterian church since 1941 and the Rev. Frank Kehrl will conduct services in her memory at 2:00 p. m. Monday. Interment will follow in Oakland cemetery.

The Rev. E. M. McKee, Presbyterian minister, will officiate and interment will follow in Mount Collins cemetery.

Mr. McKee was born in Tidewater September 13, 1871, the son of Charles and Mary Anglemore Bankhead. Surviving are two brothers, J. N. Bankhead, Tionesta, and Harry P. Bankhead, Falling Rock, W. Va.; also three nephews and one niece.

WITHHOLDS CERTIFICATE

A death certificate has been withheld in the death of Roy D. Cusick, killed when the car he was driving crashed into a log truck being driven by Clair W. Hyskell, Kinzua, near Bradford Wednesday evening, pending the outcome of an autopsy performed at Bradford Hospital. Cusick died five minutes after the accident at the scene. Cusick's wife, Anne, remains in "fair" condition as does Anthony Frisina, Bradford, who was hitchhiking home after working in Warren. Neither has regained consciousness to the extent for questioning. McKean County Coroner Robert W. Iver expects to issue an accidental death certificate for Ralph L. Mimm, 52, who succumbed early Thursday to injuries sustained Wednesday morning when his station wagon rammed a tree near Ludlow. He was the son of Mrs. Orda Vandenberg, Clarendon.

Second Chandlers Valley Child Is Victim of Polio

Another Chandlers Valley youth has contracted polio.

Four-year-old James Barton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Allen Barton, is at home today with a slight paralysis of his right leg and back. Consulting physician Dr. John Larson described the case as "mild" and not severe enough for hospitalization.

Meanwhile, the paralytic condition of 6-year-old Debbie Wichter, also of Chandlers Valley, continues to advance. Doctor Larson said this afternoon that a trace of tightness has appeared in the girl's throat.

She has already suffered loss of muscle control in her left arm.

The Barton boy brought to two the number of polio cases in Warren County for 1958, the first to be recorded since September of 1955.

Neither child afflicted had the anti-polio vaccine. Doctors continued to stress the need for inoculations during this polio season.

The four other children in the Wichter family and the other Barton children will be quarantined for a week, and inoculated. As far as health officials know, there was no contact between the two Chandlers Valley youths who have developed the disease.

First storm began about 4:25, second large downpour about 7:30.

Over at Titusville, The Herald says the drenching rainfall totaled one inch between about 4 p. m. and 7 p. m., according to the weather observer station at the Water Works. Early yesterday morning .10 of an inch was recorded for a total of 1.1 inches for the 24-hour period.

An additional .25 fall from 7 to 9 p. m. last night. On July 15 1.21 inches were measured. The rain yesterday was only the second in August in Titusville, with .05 inches falling on the first day of the month. Telephones were out of order on the East Side, in some places about 1 a. m. today, according to Robert Endress, Bell plant wire chief. Trouble calls began to come in about 5 p. m. as intense rain saturated cables along Conewango avenue and in the Pennsylvania avenue, east section.

dates for future tax increases. Flemming said the administration is not against the increases in aid to individuals, but strongly opposes shifting a greater proportional share of the cost to the Treasury.

He said the state and local governments provided 60 per cent of the cost of public assistance in 1946 but by 1957 their share had decreased to 50 per cent.

Flemming said state expenditures have doubled since 1946 while the federal payments have become three times as large.

"The programs are state programs, initiated by the states and administered by the states and communities," Flemming said.

Flemming suggested holding up action in that field until next year to develop a new formula which will have the effect of providing vigorous federal support for the public assistance program without weakening the role of the states.

To Discuss
(From Page One)
With the Middle East consigned for the moment to the General Assembly, the big powers still were working for propaganda mileage with cross demands for a summit conference.

British Prime Minister Macmillan messaged Khrushchev that he still was anxious to take part in a summit conference to end the cold war. And Sobolev told newsmen he thought the Assembly's Mid-east session might be a first step toward a summit conference on all major issues dividing the Kremlin and the Western Allies.

Drop Is Reported in Number of Jobless

WASHINGTON, (AP) — The government reported today the number of unemployed Americans dropped by 143,000 in July to 5,294,000.

Unemployment normally drops more sharply at this time of the year.

Employment rose by 198,000 to 65,179,000. The increase was not as great as usual for July.

After taking seasonal factors into account, the rate of unemployment increased. The Commerce and Labor Departments said 7.3 per cent of the work force was jobless last month compared with 6.8 per cent in June. The peak recession rate was 7½ per cent in April.

Maldoers Attempt To Burn Kinzua House

An attempted house-burning was under investigation this week by Warren County Sheriff's Department.

Chief Deputy Don Allen was called when neighbors reported acts of malicious mischief around the house at Kinzua lived in by the Morrison girls who died recently.

Upon investigation, Deputy Allen discovered that mischief makers had peppered the vacant house windows with BB shot, then put the torch to some Times-Mirror which had been placed around inside window frames to keep out prying eyes.

Fortunately, timbers of the rambling frame house did not ignite. Identity of the maldoers is known by Sheriff Larry Linder and disposition of the case is pending.

The department was also called out to investigate a break-in at the Don Schuler camp on Reynolds Run out of Russell. A back door had been forced but nothing was taken, according to the report.

It was another in a series of camp burglaries which has kept sheriff's department men questioning a number of suspects during the summer. Some stolen material has been recovered in New York State but no arrests have been made as yet.

Glade Run Pipeline Relocations Studied

A survey of possible oil pipeline relocations along upper Glade Run was made yesterday afternoon by Clifford H. McConnell, chief of flood control division, Department of Forests and Waters.

McConnell said another survey engineering crew would be in to map exact relocations, probably within two weeks. He stated bids would be let shortly afterwards and that flood control measures along the stretch might be started in November.

McConnell was accompanied on his tour by Borough Manager George Geracimos, Borough Engineer Fred DeBell, and one of his lieutenants in the division.

Plans call for a concrete flume 10-feet high up through the so-called "bottleneck" of Glade Run above Pennsylvania avenue, and an earthen dike of varying height on the west bank of the run continuing about 300 feet above the borough line.

School Bus Inspection Mon., Tues., Wednesday

Annual school bus inspection by State Troopers will be held next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, August 11, 12 and 13 from 9 a. m. to 4 p. m. Buses should be parked facing west on Fourth avenue between Court House Annex and Market street.

Trooper Joseph Mastrian said today that school bus owners and operators should have buses clean inside and out, plus making certain of most important items such as lights and tires.

Drivers should have with them a physical report signed by school physician, along with operator's permit and registration.

Shapiro Program Has Endorsement of Labor

HARRISBURG (AP) — Harry Shapiro, secretary of public welfare, has received support in his recently announced welfare policies from the Pennsylvania Federation of Labor.

In a letter to Shapiro Thursday, President Joseph J. McDonough backed Shapiro in his request that the 1959 Legislature increase relief appropriations by 90 million dollars.

The labor leader also described criticism of Shapiro's stand on relief grants to children of unwed mothers as "sniping."

flashlight. While he was groping around for it, the fire device went off, enveloping the ex-convict in flames.

His companions beat out the flaming clothes and took Kierdorf to his home in Flint, where they tried to treat his burns with a salve. Doctors found ointment on his face, neck and shoulders.

But Kierdorf's companions apparently decided he needed hospital treatment and drove him 41 miles to Pontiac, presumably to throw investigators off the track.

On the way he was coached to tell a story of being attacked and set aflame by two strangers.

The attorney general said that Donald Edward Keller, 34, Detroit, was being held in protective custody for questioning. Adams said Keller drove Herman Kierdorf to the used car lot where the Cadillac was sold. He said Keller denied being at the scene of the Flint fire.

Herman had described Keller as "one of my boys."

THE MARKETS

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market showed plenty of zip in early trading today with good gains sprinkled through numerous divisions.

Some key stocks were ahead a point or two in metals, chemicals, farm implements, tobacco and drugs.

Union Carbide was ahead more than 2. Up a point or so were du Pont, Lorillard, Chrysler, Pfizer, Kennecott, Eastman Kodak and Northrop.

Other gainers included U. S. Steel, J. I. Case, Boeing, Anaconda and Gulf Oil.

The opening trend was higher on the American Stock Exchange.

Corporate bonds were mixed at the start.

LaMara, the father of two young children, began to whimper as he was strapped into the chair. Executed at 11 p. m., he was pronounced dead three minutes later.

His wife Donna remained with him in his cell until 9 p. m. The doomed man was heard to call out occasionally, "Maybe they'll save me yet."

His attorney David M. Markowitz had gone on the air in New York City, urging the public to intercede with Harrison. The broadcast was repeated in the Albany area. The governor's office reported receiving between 400 and 500 telegrams, but there was no other comment.

LaMara snatched 33-day-old Peter from his carriage on the patio of the Westbury, N. Y. home of Mr. and Mrs. Morris Weinberger July 4, 1956.

Six-Inch Trip Costs Driver His License

ELIZABETH, N.J. (AP) — It was only a six-inch trip, but Kenneth Kline will remember it for at least two years.

His driver's license was suspended for that period Thursday and he was forced to pay a $200 fine when his conviction on a drunk-driving charge was upheld.

Kline, 31, was arrested last March 1 by Patrolman Dominick Secero.

Secero said he had warned Kline not to drive. Kline claimed he had merely stepped into his car and had intended to let his sister take the wheel. His car had moved only six inches when he was arrested, he said.

But County Judge Milton A. Feller ruled that, as far as drunken driving is concerned, six inches is as good as a mile.

Mother Admits Slaying 3-Year-Old in Motel

JOHNSTOWN (AP) — The statement of a 23-year-old mother led police today to the body of a 3-year-old boy in a motel near Cresson. Police said the boy apparently had been strangled.

The child was identified as Gary Conklin of Akron, Ohio. Police said the mother, Mrs. Eleanor Conklin told them she had killed the child. They said she made the statement shortly after she was admitted to Memorial Hospital in Johnstown suffering from injuries received in an auto accident.

The boy's body was found in a motel room on Route 22 about a mile east of Cresson. The motel operator said a woman and the boy checked in about 9 p. m. last night.

Prices of Stainless Steel Plates Revised Downward

PITTSBURGH (AP)—The U. S. Steel Corp. today cut the price of stainless steel plates approximately six per cent due to competitive market conditions.

In a statement issued Thursday, U. S. Steel said: "Mill price bases for various grades of stainless steel plates were revised downward five cents a pound or about $100 a ton."

The current price of stainless steel plates range from 50 to 92 cents a pound, or $1,000 to $1,900 a ton.

Stainless steel plates comprised about five per cent of the total stainless steel production last year.

Stainless steel sheets, the biggest tonnage item, are not affected by the price cut.

Spahn at 37 Again Heads Toward 20-Game Season

By JACK HAND
A.P. Sports Writer

Think of a 20-game winner and the name of Warren Spahn pops to mind.

The Milwaukee left-hander, now 37, is heading toward the 20-mark for the ninth time. If he makes it he will set a modern major league record for left-handed pitchers.

He is tied with Lefty Grove of the old Philadelphia 'a's among the southpaws. He still is way behind the top right-handers. Cy Young won 20 or more 16 times over 50 years ago. Christy Mathewson did it 13 times and Walter Johnson 12.

At the rate Spahn is going he will have no trouble making the grade for the third straight year. A three-run rally against Bob Friend in the seventh inning gave Milwaukee a 3-2 decision over Pittsburgh Thursday. Spahn scattered seven hits for his 15th victory.

The Braves pulled out seven full games in front of the San Francisco Giants, who lost 12-1 to the St. Louis Cardinals and Sam Jones.

Philadelphia climbed into fourth by shading Cincinnati 3-2 behind Don Cardwell. Dave Philley's triple and Chicago Fernandez's sacrifice fly broke a 2-2 tie in the eighth to beat Bob Purkey. Johnny Klippstein saved Sandy Koufax in the ninth inning to protect a 3-1 Los Angeles victory over the Chicago Cubs.

In the only American League game, the Boston Red Sox walked Washington 8-4.

Friend had a 1-0 lead and a two-hit shutout going to the seventh at Milwaukee. Red Schoendienst opened with a single and Eddie Mathews hit his 23rd home run. A single by Hank Aaron, a sacrifice and a single by Frank Torre added the third run.

The revived Cardinals battered loser Mike McCormick and two others for 13 hits. Stan Musial's two hits in three trips gave him the batting lead at 346 to 344 for the Phils' Richie Ashburn.

Manager Billy Rigney of the Giants was ejected by Umpire Al Barlick when he and Ramon Montañez objected to a call of a third ball.

The Phillies had a 2-0 edge going into the seventh when Bob Thurman's third single, a single by Don Hoak and a two-run double by Bailey evened matters. Ed Bouchee's single drove in the first Phil run and Cardwell's single knocked in the second.

Williams Almost Certain to Reach Home-Run Goal

By JACK HAND

For a man closing in on his 40th birthday, Ted Williams still swings a mean home run bat. With 476 to his credit, the Boston Red Sox slugger now seems certain to reach his lifetime goal of 500 home runs.

Williams hit his 20th homer of the year (No. 476) and a two-run single Thursday while Boston spanked Washington 8-4 for its fifth straight victory. It was the only game scheduled in the American League.

The two hits edged Williams to 311 and an eighth-place tie in the batting race. Although he still is 24 points behind the leader, teammate Pete Runnels, Ted still must be given a chance of winning his sixth batting crown.

In the National League, Milwaukee came up with three runs in the seventh inning and beat Pittsburgh 3-2. Johnny Klippstein saved Sandy Koufax with a ninth-inning relief job in Los Angeles' 3-1 victory over Chicago.

Sam Jones pitched a four-hitter for St. Louis in a 12-1 romp over the San Francisco Giants. Philadelphia beat Cincinnati 3-2.

Williams' homer at Fenway Park was a tape measure job, variously estimated at more than 450 feet. It came on the first pitch by Truman Cleveland with the bases empty in the sixth inning and soared some 20 rows into the right field bleachers. Ted's two-run single came with the bases loaded in the second.

Frank Sullivan won his ninth, allowing eight hits and fanning seven. He yielded Roy Sievers' 31st homer and Jim Lemon's 23rd. Don Buddin also hit a home run off Cleveland. Hal Griggs was the loser.

SPORTSMAN'S DIGEST

By Hal Sharp

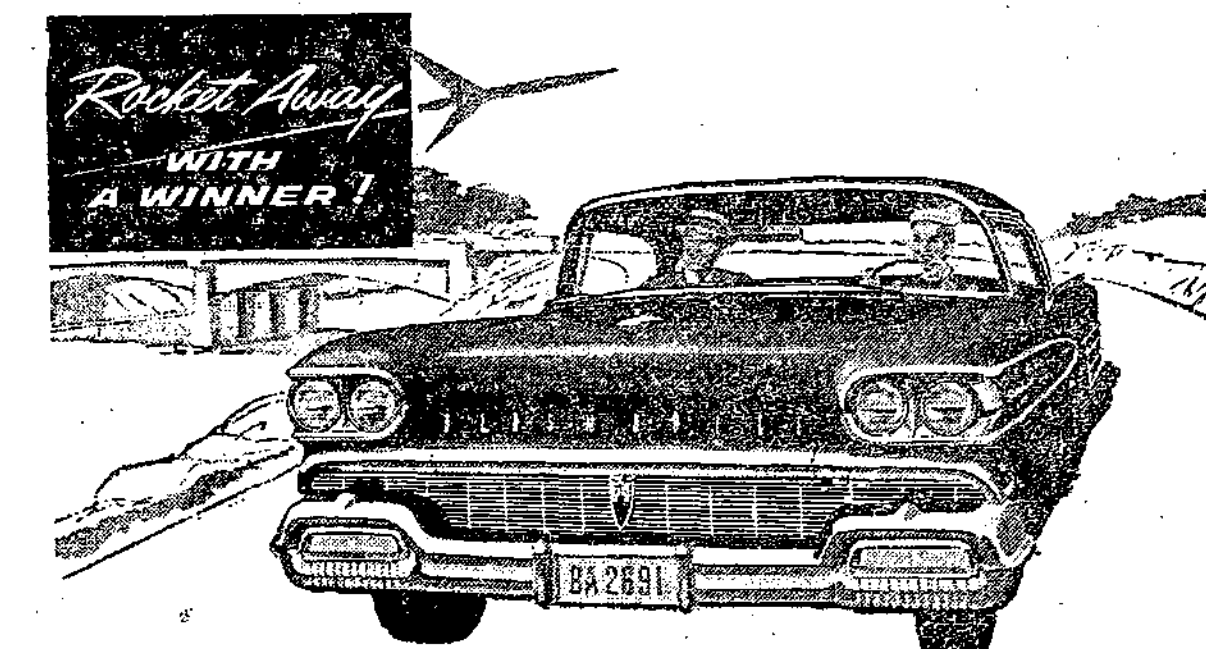

MATCH LURE WITH ROD'S ACTION

When selecting a spinning rod, consider the weights of lures you expect to use. Lures weighing less than ¼-ounce need a light-action rod. A medium-action rod casts ¼- to ¾-ounce lures best. Lures over ¾-ounce need a stiff- or heavy-action rod.

Light rods and lures are usually best suited to small streams and small fish. Heavy rods and lures are usually best on large rivers, lakes, and in salt water for largest fish.

If lure is lighter than rod action, hang it lower to cast.

Many Records Are Shattered During Highland Games

DUBLIN (AP) — Australians Herb Elliott and Albert Thomas packed their record-breaking cleats for Edinburgh and the Highland Games today. Behind them left shattered world records for the mile and two-mile runs.

Elliott Wednesday set a great mark of 3:54.5 for the mile on the newly laid, $36,000 Santry Stadium track. Thomas Thursday established the world's best time for the two miles with a 8:32 clocking.

England's Derek Ibbotson is looking forward to meeting the 20-year-old Elliott in the mile at Edinburgh.

Ibbotson's time never was rated as a world mark because of possible pacing complications. And this season Ibbotson has failed to hit the peak form that made him the "King of the Milers" last season.

But Ibbotson still maintains he's "the top."

A race between Elliott and Ibbotson may see the Englishman pulling something extra out of the bag to surprise the fans and push Elliott to a fast time. That's the sort of last-ditch effort many think Ibbotson capable of performing.

Thomas, 35 Australian clerk, broke the world two-mile record Thursday night after Elliott had set the pace for five laps. Thomas pushed ahead on the sixth lap and then raced away on his own to a world standard and a 25-yard lead over Elliott.

Elliott was timed second in 4:37.6. The listed world mark of 5:33.4 was set by Hungary's Sandor Ibaros in London May 30, 1955.

So Elliott repaid the debt he owned to Thomas for his fantastic mile time.

In that mile Thomas set the pace for the first two laps. Then Merv Lincoln of Australia took over, followed by the powerful Elliott, who surged ahead to victory and a mile time that looks as if it'll stand for years. Thomas finished fifth in 3:58.6.

Speaking of Sports

Twenty-seven members of the 43-man Jamestown Semi-Pro football team reported to head coach Jim Conti and backfield coach, George Caccamise at Harrison Street Field Wednesday. Jamestown eleven will open its Western New York Semi-Pro football conference schedule first week of September.

It was reported by a press release that Ed Moran, James City and former track at Kane, would run in the 800-meters event in the U. S.-Hungary track meet which was held yesterday. Moran placed fourth in the 1,500 meter run Tuesday. The Penn State track star reported that the last meal which the U. S. team had at Warsaw had disagreed with some of the team members. He said some of them felt sort of "funny".

Rain-delayed "Comedy of Errors"—originally scheduled for July 30—will be played prior to Pittsburgh Pirates-Milwaukee Braves makeup game Tuesday evening. Comedy of Errors will move at 7:30 p. m. Bucs and Braves contesting at 8:15.

"Big Three" of Pirates' pitching staff reached their peak this year on the weekend of August 1-3, when they hurled three consecutive shutouts over St. Louis Cardinals. Ronnie Kline beat the Cards Friday night 2-0 followed by a 1-0 win by Vern Law with Bob Friend pitching a 2-0 shutout in the first game on August 3. George Witt hurled five shutout frames in the nightcap on the 3rd, when second game was halted by the controversial 7 p. m. Pennsylvania curfew law. Including the five scoreless relief innings by Law on July 13 (second game) in St. Louis, Bucs pitchers have now held Cardinals scoreless for 37 straight innings!

Two Young Pros Are Leading in Milwaukee Open

By CHUCK CAPALDO
Associated Press Sport Writer
MILWAUKEE (AP)—Paul Harney and Ernie Vossler, 29-year-old pros with only one tournament victory between them this year, today carried a thin, one-stroke lead into the second round of the $25,000 Milwaukee Open Golf Tournament.

They shared seven strokes off Tripoli golf course's tempting, 35-

Reese Not Sure He's Interested In Manager Post

LOS ANGELES, Calif. (AP)—Manager Walter Alton had one less worry when he returned home with his Los Angeles Dodgers today after a swing through the East, where the Dodgers won eight games and lost nine.

Peevish Reese, Dodger shortstop and captain, has scratched himself as an immediate candidate for the job Alton has "lost" off and on for the past month or so.

Asked if he was interested in a managerial job, Reese said: "Frankly I'm not sure and definitely not while I'm still able to play. All my life I have been hearing about players who just couldn't wait to finish their playing careers so they could get a managerial job."

"I am not one of them. I have enjoyed playing, and I am still enjoying the game. When I come to the end of the line then there will be time to talk about my managerial possibilities. This isn't the time."

35-70 standard for record-equaling 63s Thursday in the opening round. But then 50 other players in the field of 140 also smashed par.

Seldom has a course been so thoroughly tamed as this one, despite an energy-sapping humidity, two heavy rainstorms and a tornado that cavorted nearby.

Harney, who comes from Worcester, Mass., and Vossler, a master plumber who plays out of Midland, Tex., owed their fine rounds to sharp putting. Harney needed only 26 strokes on the greens, one more than Vossler. They stroked identical rounds of 31-32.

Sharing third place with 64s were Brian Charter, 31, pro from Janesville, Wis., and Sam Snead, 46, the slammer from White Sulphur Springs, W. Va. They each carded 34-30.

Aussie Swimming Star Competing In Senior A.A.U.

By CHARLES CHAMBERLAIN
Associated Press Sports Writer
INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — You could say Murray Rose is like a tiger in a cage.

He will be let loose today and the fellow who had better watch out is George Breen.

Rose, 19-year-old Australian swimming star who now is studying tele-communications at the University of Southern California, today goes after the 1,500-meter free-style title in the National Senior AAU meet.

He virtually has been locked up in his room for the last 24 hours. This procedure of isolation is part of the training program preferred by coach Pete Daland of the Los Angeles Athletic Club.

His team, which includes Rose and another Aussie Olympic champion on loan from USC, Jon Hendricks, is expected to supplant the Indianapolis Athletic Club as AAU team titlists in the three-day 15-event meet.

Breen, main member of the Indianapolis squad, is the official world record holder in the 1,500-meter free-style with a clocking of 17:52.9, set in the 1956 Olympics time trial in Melbourne. But Rose beat him in the finals. Breen won the National AAU outdoor crown last year in 18:17.3.

Armstrong Slight Underdog in His Fight With Rory

NEW YORK (AP)—For a fellow stepping into fast company, Gene (Ace) Armstrong is getting a lot of respect. The rangy unbeaten middleweight is only a 6-5 underdog against experienced, powerful Rory Calhoun for their 10-round television scrap at Madison Square Garden tonight.

Armstrong, 26, Elizabeth, N.J., has won all 14 of his pro fights in three years. But he has scored only one knockout and his only victory over a name fighter came Feb. 17 when he decisively whipped Charley Joseph of New Orleans. That was his last fight.

Calhoun, 23, White Plains, N.Y., has a 35-4-1 record, including 18 knockouts. He has fought most of the leading middleweights.

It's the contrasting styles that apparently give Armstrong a solid chance. Calhoun is the sixth contender and Armstrong No. 9.

Armstrong, a fine boxer, likes an opponent to come to him. He doesn't have to worry about Rory on that score.

"That will suit me fine," said Armstrong. "Let him come. I'll be waiting and ready. This is my big chance. I'm not going to blow it."

Pirates Plagued By Lack of Long Ball Wallopers

MILWAUKEE (AP)—The Pittsburgh Pirates are once again plagued by the lack of the long ball.

Thursday was no exception as the league - leading Milwaukee Braves defeated the Pirates 3-2. Although the Pirates out-hit the Braves 7-6, they left four men stranded on base.

The loss dropped the Pirates deeper into third place, nine games from the top.

Pittsburgh took the lead in the second inning when Billy Mazaroski doubled and scored on Dick Groat's single.

The Pirates got another run in the eighth on consecutive singles by pinch-hitter Harry Bright and Bill Virdon and a sacrifice fly. Dick Utuati tied out to end the inning.

Many Sections of State Visited by Hard Rain Storms

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Many southwestern Pennsylvania communities are recovering today from briefly severe electrical storms and heavy rains Thursday night. No deaths or injuries were reported.

Numerous power lines and trees were felled and high water was reported in some of the low-lying areas in Pittsburgh and Allegheny County. Gusts of winds were reported up to 59 miles per hour.

Lightning apparently hit a streetcar in downtown Pittsburgh, shorting electrical equipment in its undercarriage.

At Tarentum, power was cut off at Allegheny Valley Hospital. However, there were no emergency cases at the time and auxiliary generators were immediately put into service.

In Steubenville, Ohio, storms and high winds knocked down electric power lines, cutting off lights in the north end of the city. Gill Hospital had no power and the Ohio Power Co. reported one of its transformers out of service.

A barn at Grindstone, R.D. 1, near Brownsville in Fayette County was leveled by a fire started by lightning. Brownsville and Uniontown's power and utility service were disrupted.

The U. S. Weather Bureau at the Greater Pittsburgh Airport said the storm came from the northwest and moved eastward through southern counties. It reported .6 of an inch of rain fell in an hour at the airport.

'Old West' Style Holdup On Pittsburgh Trolley

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Police say four persons have identified George A. LaRue, 22, of Pittsburgh's Hill District, as one of three men who pulled the "Old West" style holdup of a trolley Sunday night. The men boarded the streetcar at a secluded spot and systematically robbed the motorman and 20 passengers at knifepoint.

LaRue's record of robbing motormen led to his arrest, according to officers. Police charged him with armed robbery. He denied any part in the holdup.

BIKE RIDER KILLED

MEADVILLE, Pa. (AP)—Injuries suffered in a bicycle accident Thursday killed Howard Walton, 8, of Meadville. Crawford County Coroner Sherman L. Watson said the boy was riding down a hill near his home when he ran into a creek. He was thrown from the bike and struck his head on a rock.

Law Prohibiting Adults on School Buses Disrupting

TARENTUM, Pa. (AP)—Atty. Thomas P. Geer says a state law prohibiting adults from riding school buses will disrupt many school activities.

"It could ban coaches accompanying athletic teams, attendants caring for crippled children, leave many other field trips unchaperoned," Geer told newsmen.

He represents Ernest Zanella, Plum Borough school bus operator, who was fined $25 and $5 costs Wednesday night on charges of violating the law. Five of Zanella's drivers received the same fines. Geer appealed the fines to Allegheny County Court.

State Police St. W. W. Kitch accused Zanella and the drivers of carrying parents as well as children to a school picnic on June 14. The sergeant also charged that copies of Zanella's contract with the school district were not displayed in all the buses.

Geer said that the parents who rode the buses were chaperoning. Col. Earl J. Henry, state police commissioner, said there is no special drive to enforce the law, which was passed by the 1957 legislature.

"I don't believe in these so-called concentrated drives," Henry said. "I believe in a direct, steady pressure against any violations."
